

Negative form

13 The negative is formed by putting non (not) before the verb:

Non parlo italiano.	I don't speak Italian.
Non prendiamo la macchina fotografica.	We're not taking the camera.
Giulia e Susanna non partono?	Aren't Giulia and Susanna leaving?
Non capisce niente.	He/she doesn't understand anything.

Formal form

14 As we saw in Unit 4, the pronouns used for the formal form are Lei for the singular (for both women and men) and Voi for the plural (the pronoun Loro is much more formal):

(Lei) Parla italiano?	Do you speak Italian?
Non prende un taxi, Professor Masi?	Aren't you taking a taxi, Professor Masi?
Partite, Signori Bianco?	} Are you leaving(, Mr and Mrs Bianco)?
((Loro) Partono, Signori Bianco?)

Present tense of some irregular verbs

15 In Italian, as in most languages, there are a number of irregular verbs whose conjugation is best learned by heart and with use. Here is the conjugation of some of the more frequently used irregular verbs:

Dare (to give)	Stare (to stay/live/feel)	Sapere (to know)
dò	sto	so
dai	stai	sai
dà	sta	sa
diamo	stiamo	sappiamo
date	state	sapete
danno	stanno	sanno
Andare (to go)	Uscire (to go out/leave)	Venire (to come)
vado	esco	vengo
vai	esci	vieni
va	esce	viene
andiamo	usciamo	veniamo
andate	uscite	venite
vanno	escono	vengono